

LOADED PRECISION PRODUCTS STARTS SEASON THREE AT THE SEA OTTER CLASSIC

Friday, April 20, 2012 – Loaded Precision Products

When the April sun starts to shine in sunny California, you know the racing season is underway! Loaded Precision Products is coming out for its third season as a competitive force! This year the Loaded USA MTB team has grown and the new components have gotten event lighter and stronger. With a goal to have presence at most major events, the crew has loaded up the new Fully Custom Loaded USA Trailer and headed out to The Sea Otter Classic in Monterey, CA.

Loaded USA has set up shop at booth 506. On display will be this season's newest components. Loaded USA reps hanging out to answer any questions you may have. "This year we are expecting great things from our riders. The Sea Otter Classic is always a ton of fun and brings out the best in the mountain bike community. It's going to be a great weekend", Loaded USA Rep.

The weekend will be full of excitement on and off the trails. Several of the Loaded Team Riders will be racing so be sure to keep an eye on Loaded Facebook and Twitter to see how they do. Saturday at 4:00 PM, Loaded will be celebrating The Sea Otter Classic with a BBQ and beverages. Loaded will be giving away Free Loaded Pint Glasses with the purchase of any Loaded T-Shirt!

Be sure to come by, say hello, and hang out with the team riders and the reps.
